Clyde Douglas Reed
June 20, 1922 – April 2, 2006

Clyde Reed was a life member of the American Bloodhound Club, an honorary deputy sheriff in Pierce County, Washington, and a founding member of the Northwest Bloodhound Search and Rescue organization. His dedication to bloodhounds, participation in mantrailing, and support of beginning and veteran dog-and-handler teams will long be remembered.

Clyde was preceded in death by his son David and his wife, Lena, who co-authored The Complete Bloodhound, The New Complete Bloodhound, and Manhunters! Hounds of the Big T. Together, Clyde and Lena were an excellent mantrailing team with Clyde's handling of the bloodhounds and Lena's keeping meticulous records and being ever willing to go out and get lost.

Many will remember Clyde and Lena's bloodhounds, who were equally at home in the show ring or on the trail: Boomerang, Melody, Chocolate Candy, Fearless Fosdick, Maccabee, and Henrietta.

Clyde leaves an extended family: second wife, Ruth, his daughter, Bobbi Eller, his son, Richard, his granddaughters, Michelle and Suzanna, and great-grandson-in-waiting Benjamin Donald Koch (expected August 2006), not to mention numerous friends, bloodhounds, and search and rescue teams who mourn his passing.
